Governor Dayton's Budget for New Ulm

The Governor's budget proposal is fair, responsible and moves Minnesota forward. For New Ulm he has proposed new investments in education from our earliest learners to new investments that will put the dream of higher education within the reach of every Minnesotan. The Governor's proposal also makes our state's tax system more fair for all Minnesotans by asking the richest among us to pay their fair share in taxes.

In Brown County, that means asking only 110 taxpayers to pay a little bit more in income taxes. In exchange, the state will be able to afford important new investments in the New Ulm community. By asking the 110 richest residents of Brown County to pay a little more in taxes, we can provide an additional $671,715 to New Ulm schools. This new revenue also allows us to make college more affordable by providing $0 in new grant money for New Ulm college students.

In total, by asking the 110 richest residents of Brown County to pay their fair share in taxes, we can invest $1,210,395 in New Ulm's students, schools and property tax relief. This is a deal worth making.
